

Heavy rain and flooding have severe impacts on health both in the immediate, short and long term.

An infographic on the main health risks and measures to adopt during and after a flood has been developed by the DEP for the Ministry of Health.

Infographic